7 Kessler Street, Baringa

Three-bedroom beauty in the heart of Baringa!

This unique style of terrace home boasts a modern, urban facade and interior with large, light filled windows and an abundance of open space. Welcomed by an abundance of natural light, steaming in from the two-level feature window and large void over the dining space, the space and light in this great design are emphasised. A modern kitchen boasts large breakfast island with modern appliances and views to the expansive entertaining area outside. This contemporary space is complete with a stunning barn door with black fittings. Behind which is a well-appointed laundry and downstairs powder room. With a great sized grassed yard for the kids or the fur babies, double car garage with drive through access, this three-bedroom home is perfect for families or investors.

This sought-after, loft-style home offers three bedrooms upstairs all with built-in robes and ceiling fans. The master bedroom boasts ensuite bathroom and air-conditioning with large windows and natural light aplenty. The upstairs lounge offers natural light as adding in from the large glass windows and stunning feature window. The main bathroom is also well-appointed with bathtub, shower and separate toilet. This contemporary three-bedroom home offers a perfect combination of style and functionality.
