The sizeable kitchen, featuring a five-burner Miele gas cooktop, Westinghouse wall oven and extensive storage, adjoins its own living space leading through to the home's laundry.

Four oversized bedrooms include a choice of two masters - both boasting walk-in wardrobes and private balconies facing the ocean. One of the two bathrooms here includes an impressive Cleopatra-style raised bath with spa.

For those needing dual living or guest accommodation away from the main house, a separate studio including kitchenette, bathroom and sauna sits to one side of the tropically landscaped 9 x 4m saltwater Gumnut pool.

Despite the home's size, utility costs are low thanks to solar hot water, 6.6kW solar panels and 155,000L of double-filtered tank water. Cooling is ensured through split-system air conditioning, while ceiling fans and flyscreens throughout allow the coastal breezes to flow.

A double remote garage is complemented by a three-car carport, providing high-roofed covered accommodation for multiple vehicles alongside additional off-street hard standing.

The 1.5-acre grounds combine extensive lawns and lush planting with raised veggie beds and fruit trees including mandarins, oranges, limes, lemons, passionfruit, bananas, mangoes, blueberries, papayas and guava. There's scope to add a sizeable shed on a level rear pad.

Situated just 15 minutes from Noosa, and within 20 minutes of the coast's best schools, restaurants, beaches and amenities, 25 Pacific View Drive combines light-filled living spaces and beautiful vistas with absolute privacy and tranquillity.

This substantial Noosa hinterland property offers all the important attributes - without the inflated price tag. Call Kate today on 0419 128 656 for an inspection.
